No.APNMC/Mercy Chance/2024 Dt.18.04.2024

-::CIRCULAR::-

Sub: APNMC - INC - Mercy Chance - Applications are invited from the candidates to appear examination as one time measure conducted by APNMC - Extension of time period to receive applications till 30th April, 2024 to get aware of the candidates who require eligibility examination to continue the respective nursing course i.e., GNM/B.Sc(N) Courses - Reg.

With reference to the subject cited above, INC have resolved the following Resolution regarding Granting of Mercy Chance/ Relaxation of Maximum time period to the students who have completed the theory & clinicals for the course GNM/BSc(N) and have backlogs/failed/not attempted the final examinations.

"Maximum time limit for completing nursing course can be relaxed subject to the condition that, such candidate qualify a basic examination conducted (for the purpose) by the respective State Nursing Council in order to be allowed to continue the course/appear in the University examination".

In this sequence, an important update regarding the eligibility examination conducted by the Andhra Pradesh Nurses & Midwives Council (APNMC) in collaboration with the Indian Nursing Council (INC) under the Mercy Chance scheme.

APNMC have received various applications from the candidates seeking to appear for the examination as a one-time measure, allowing them to continue their respective nursing courses. However, in order to accommodate all eligible candidates and ensure fairness, it is decided to extend the deadline for receiving applications until 30th April, 2024.

This extension will provide ample time for candidates to submit their applications and for us to process them accordingly. We believe that this extension will help us better identify candidates who require the eligibility examination to continue their nursing education.

Hence, your cooperation is required in disseminating this information to all concerned Government & Private Nursing Institutions who offer GNM/B.Sc(N) Courses in the State of Andhra Pradesh, including candidates and relevant stakeholders. Additionally, please to ensure that all applications are submitted by the revised deadline to facilitate a smooth examination process on or before 30th April, 2024. The format of application is enclosed herewith to be filled by the candidate along with a request & all the supporting certificates related to qualification/nursing course.
